The Akerboom Vlet 1350 was built as a sounding vessel for Rijkswaterstaat. This vlet served as a sounding vessel from Den Helder.

This Akerboom Vlet 1350 is still in almost original condition. This means that the space behind the wheelhouse is still unused. Here is the possibility to create a spacious aft cabin.

The Akerboom Vlet 1350 has very good sailing characteristics and is suitable for sailing on coastal waters.
